

GOLD AWARDS 2017 TERMS AND CONDITIONS

CONDITIONS OF ENTRY

1. Applications will be accepted for schemes developed in the UK, Channel Islands and the Republic of Ireland.
2. For the Re:new, Re:fresh/Re:fresh+ and Re:lax awards the developments must have opened to the general public between 1 March 2016 - 30 September 2017.
3. Where developments are phased the project may be submitted at the completion of any stage, but it may be submitted only once.
4. Entries should be submitted by the developer/owner in the first instance (with support from local authorities'/retailers/ shopping centres and retail destinations where appropriate), but the jury may, at its absolute discretion, accept submissions from the architect or other members of the professional team, being a member of Revo. Entrants for the Re:generate award will only be accepted from the local authority / public sector body and not the private partner/s.
5. Members of the jury undertake to inspect each shortlisted scheme entered. Entrants are asked to provide a presentation followed by a tour of the development. The jury spend approximately 1.5-2 hours on site. Visits will be made in October 2017 on a date decided by Revo.
6. The awards will be presented to the owner. The winner of the Re:generate award will be awarded to the local authority.
7. The recipient of the award must be a member of Revo.
8. There is no limit to the number of schemes that may be submitted per company, but each entry must be accompanied by the appropriate entry fee of £195 + VAT for the Re:generate award and £495 + VAT for the Re:new, Re:fresh/Re:fresh+ and Re:lax categories.
9. Entries can cover the whole spectrum of retail property and places including central area schemes, out of town developments, retail/warehouse parks and food/leisure anchored centres. In considering each entry, the jury will assess the degree to which others in the industry could benefit by adopting any lessons from the project, and the extent to which the development may be indicative of future trends.
10. The jury reserves the right not to grant an award.
11. Revo reserves the right to adapt any entries in published form for distribution to the retail property industry. This includes the showcasing of supplied imagery and photography across Revo's wider activity platforms and collateral, unless explicitly advised against at the time of entry.
12. If there are any queries regarding eligibility of a scheme for entry, it is advised that the matter be checked at an early stage. The judges reserve the right to change your chosen category as deemed appropriate any outstanding fee will be charged or credited.
13. The winners will be presented at the Revo Annual Dinner on Wednesday 6 December 2017. Entrants will need to book and pay for their own table/tickets at the Annual Dinner.
14. Applicants should note that photos will be used for Revo PR purposes.
15. All entries are to be submitted by 17.00 on Monday 24 July 2017.
